Fribourg profile

The Institute of General and Comparative Literature offers a doctoral training in the field of literature from Antiquity to the contemporary period and in literary theory and interculturality.

The programme provides the opportunity to cover these fields of study in all aspects and in the multiplicity of their manifestations. It fosters a mindset of exchange and promotes intense collaboration between professors and doctoral students, thanks to the doctoral programme in collaboration with the Universities of Zurich and Geneva – and with the Institute's international partners.

The theses directed within the Institute can cover many fields, including:

- Poetic, historic and thematic issues
- Literary theory
- · Interdisciplinary and transversal issues
- Intercultural, post-colonial and global perspectives
